Erfahrung

I have rich work experience of 13 years in various renowned pharmaceuticals and medical devices industries. I was in sales and business development role and was always face of my organisations to my customers. I have done my graduation in plant biology from India and then after working for several years i moved to Germany and completed my master degree in strategic business management from ULAW Berlin. At present I am working as a crew member in FIVE Guys . I always like interacting with people, having great interpersonal skills. I give my fullest to whatever work I do and always keep a smile on my face.
